Dear Parents,

This Sunday many of our year 4 students will receive the Sacrament of Eucharist for the first time. This important milestone in their faith journey signifies their deeper commitment to our faith community and their participation in the Holy Communion. The ceremony promises to be a heartfelt and spiritually enriching event, filled with prayers, blessings, and the support of family and friends. We extend our warmest congratulations to the children and their families as they prepare for this sacred occasion!

A reminder that tomorrow we are celebrating the Feast of St Anne and St Joachim (Jesus' grandparents) with our own Grandparents/ Special Person Day. We will begin with a whole school liturgy in the church at 8:50 and then special guests will be invited to visit their loved ones in their classroom. The Salesian coffee van will be available for adults only and the OLMC staff will be providing morning tea for our special guests at 10am.

Congratulations to the Jackson family (Benny Prep R) on the birth of baby Molly. Welcome to the OLMC community. We can't wait to meet her!

I am excited to celebrate the birthdays of more of our wonderful students this week! I wish each of them a fantastic year ahead filled with joy, growth, and memorable moments. I send them my warmest birthday wishes. Happy Birthday!

I would like to remind everyone that the OLMC PTFA page (or any social media) is not a forum for making complaints about the school. Social media has become a prevalent means of communication, but it is not the appropriate forum for addressing complaints. Publicly airing grievances can lead to misunderstandings, spread misinformation, and create a negative environment. Instead, we encourage parents to direct their concerns through the proper channels, such as speaking with teachers or leaders. This approach ensures that issues are addressed constructively and respectfully, allowing for effective resolution and maintaining a positive school community, something we pride ourselves on.

The 2024 Book Week theme is “Reading is Magic”. Our Book Week Parade will be on Monday 19th August in place of assembly and will take place outside on The Green at 8:50. We will be celebrating our love for reading and the magic of stories. To make this event enjoyable for everyone, we encourage students to keep their costumes simple and creative. A homemade outfit inspired by a favourite book character can be both fun and budget-friendly. The focus is on participation and enthusiasm rather than elaborate costumes, ensuring all children can join in the festivities and share the joy of reading with their peers. Let’s make this Book Week Parade a memorable celebration of literature and imagination!

God bless,

Julie

Student Recognition Award

Prep B	Massimo Gentilin	For his positive attitude and persistence when using his knowledge of letters and sounds to complete his writing. You have been working so hard and are becoming such an independent writer.
Prep R	Annabella Casey	For demonstrating greater focus during learning tasks, especially with her formation and placement of letters on dotted thirds.
1/2BR	Luci Coomber	For showing consistency and determination during reading groups. Luci you have become more confident to discuss your connections and ideas. Keep up the good work. Well done!
1/2AZ	Noah Abou-Eid	For your positive mindset and resilience you have displayed in reading especially when you are decoding new words. Keep up the great work Noah.
1/2R	Felice Terranova	For displaying the disposition of self-reflection and taking responsibility for his own behaviour and learning by staying focused and on task! Keep up the amazing effort Felice!
3/4CT	Patrick Markmann	For showing determination and resilience when working on his handwriting skills and editing his writing pieces. Keep up this great work Patrick!
3/4D	Daisy Crook	Daisy is a student who always tries to do her best. Daisy was able to fold a paper strip into fifths and then demonstrated to the class how it can be done. Daisy, keep up your fantastic attitude to learning
3/4H	Vincent Xerri	You have shown incredible adaptability, positivity, and independence this week. You consistently put in your best effort with learning tasks and demonstrated great determination when faced with challenges. Well done Vincent.
5MP	Zac Fulton-Scanes	For demonstrating a positive mindset when returning to school after an extended break. You have actively demonstrated how you can effectively use strategies when faced with tricky situations. Keep up the great attitude Zac!
5SB	Charlie Dixon	For being focused and determined when doing class work, and overcoming his injury to do so.
6C	Isla Tait	In recognition of your determination during Maths sessions when solving equations involving adding fractions with related denominators.
6FP	Bradley Spark	For outstanding effort, achievement and peer teaching in Mathematics! Amazing effort, Bradley.
